Taxi

Taxis are available outside the airport terminal. The journey to TBS Education or central Toulouse usually takes around 20–30 minutes, depending on traffic.

Taxis operate with a fixed fare between Toulouse-Blagnac Airport and Toulouse city centre, depending on the destination area.

From Toulouse Matabiau Train Station

Toulouse Matabiau is the city's main railway station and is located close to the city centre.

By metro:

From Marengo–SNCF metro station, take Line A towards Basso Cambo and get off at Jean-Jaurès. Change to Line B towards Borderouge and get off at Compans-Caffarelli, the closest metro station to TBS Education.

By foot:

TBS Education is approximately 20–25 minutes' walk from Toulouse Matabiau station.

By taxi:

Taxis are available outside the station. The journey to TBS Education takes approximately 10 minutes, depending on traffic.

Getting to TBS Education

The General Meeting will take place at TBS Education, located in central Toulouse, near the Compans-Caffarelli district.

Nearest metro station: Compans-Caffarelli – Line B

Walking time: approximately 5 minutes from the metro station.

The campus is within walking distance of many hotels, restaurants and Toulouse's main city-centre attractions.

About Toulouse

Welcome to Toulouse, the Pink City!

Located in south-western France, Toulouse is the capital of the Occitanie region and one of France's major university and research centres. Known for its distinctive pink-brick architecture, the city combines a rich historical heritage with a vibrant student and scientific community.

Toulouse is particularly renowned for its aerospace and space industry. Home to major aerospace companies, research centres and universities, the city has played a key role in the development of European aviation and space exploration.

Beyond its scientific and technological identity, Toulouse is a lively and welcoming city, with a lot of squares, cafés, local markets and the banks of the Garonne. The historic centre is easy to explore on foot, with highlights including the Place du Capitole, the Basilica of Saint-Sernin, the Couvent des Jacobins and the Garonne river.

And don't leave without trying some local specialities, such as saucisse de Toulouse, cassoulet and the famous Toulouse violets!

A city where heritage, innovation and the art of living come together.

TBS Education Campus

The UNIVERSEH General Meeting will take place on the TBS Education campus in Toulouse. Located in the heart of Toulouse, the campus offers a welcoming setting for meetings, discussions and collaboration. It is close to the city centre, making it easy to explore Toulouse's historic streets, cafés and restaurants during your stay.

Where to eat and drink ?

Lists of restaurants near TBS Education's campus or near the city center for your WPs dinners or afterwork session

Toulouse is a lively, welcoming city with a great food scene, from traditional South-West French cooking to modern bistronomy and international cuisine. We have put together a short selection of well-reviewed restaurants, either close to the TBS Education campus or closer to the city centre if you would like to enjoy a little more of Toulouse after the meeting.

Tip: For November, we recommend booking in advance, especially for larger groups. Prices are indicative and may vary depending on the menu and date.

Recommended restaurants around TBS Education's campus (20 Boulevard Lascrosses, 31000 Toulouse):

These options are within a short walk or very easy journey from the TBS campus:

- Complices

Address: 19 Boulevard Lascrosses • approx. 2 min walk from TBS | Price: around €23 per person

Cuisine: Traditional French cuisine

Why choose it: A very convenient neighbourhood restaurant with a warm, contemporary atmosphere and dishes such as South-West duck and Occitan beef. Good value for a work dinner.

Booking: Online via TheFork or by phone. Book online

- Chez Jean et Gabi

Address: 46 Avenue Honoré Serres • approx. 8–10 min walk | Price: €€

Cuisine: Creative French cuisine with international influences

Why choose it: A small, friendly restaurant where French cuisine is mixed with Mediterranean, Asian and Brazilian influences. A nice option for a more original dinner; local, organic and natural-wine options are highlighted.

Booking: Online via the restaurant website, or by phone. Book online

Where to eat and drink ?

- Le Bistrot d'Hercule

Address: 28 Avenue Paul Séjourné • approx. 8–10 min walk | Price: roughly €20–40

Cuisine: French bistro / South-West-inspired dishes

Why choose it: A relaxed and convivial bistro with generous portions and several regional touches, including South-West duck and aligot croquettes. Suitable for informal team dinners and groups.

Booking: Online via the restaurant website or by phone. Book online

- Barricot

Address: 8 Esplanade Compans Caffarelli • approx. 5 min walk | Price: €€

Cuisine: Traditional French cuisine, local products & buffet

Why choose it: Located inside the Mercure Toulouse Compans Caffarelli. The buffet format is flexible for groups and offers a broad choice, with a focus on homemade and local products.

Booking: Online via the restaurant website. Book online

Recommended restaurants near the city center:

If you would like to explore the historic centre after the meeting, these restaurants are a little further away but offer a chance to experience Toulouse's lively central neighbourhoods and local cuisine.

- Aux Pieds Sous La Table

Address: 4–8 Rue Arnaud Bernard • Saint-Sernin / Arnaud Bernard | Price: evening menu around €32–38

Cuisine: Modern South-West French / bistronomic cuisine

Why choose it: A popular, convivial restaurant with 100% homemade, seasonal and locally sourced cuisine. It combines regional influences with a modern approach and has a good choice of evening menus.

Booking: Online via the restaurant website or by phone. Book online

Where to eat and drink ?

- Le Colombier

Address: 14 Rue de Bayard • near Place du Capitole / Matabiau | Price: around €27–34 for regional dishes/menus

Cuisine: Traditional South-West French cuisine

Why choose it: A Toulouse institution, especially famous for cassoulet made with confit goose. A strong choice if you want to try a very traditional dish from the region in a historic setting.

Booking: Online via the restaurant website, or by phone. Book online

- Au Gascon

Address: 9 Rue des Jacobins • city centre, near Place du Capitole | Price: 25-30

Cuisine: Traditional Gascon / South-West French cuisine

Why choose it: A long-established restaurant specialising in homemade, traditional cuisine and fresh products. A good option for discovering Gascon specialities while staying right in the centre.

Booking: by phone: +33698626592

- Bistroquet Toulouse

Address: 10 Rue Labeda • city centre | Price: around €20–30

Cuisine: French bistro cuisine

Why choose it: A lively central bistro with a relaxed atmosphere and accessible prices. Its central location makes it convenient if your group would like to continue exploring the city afterwards.

Booking: Online via the restaurant's booking page. Book online

Where to eat and drink ?

- Les Sales Gosses

Address: 81 Rue Pierre-Paul Riquet • central Toulouse | Price: around €30–80 depending on menu

Cuisine: Modern French / seasonal cuisine

Why choose it: A well-known local restaurant with creative dishes, attractive presentation and a friendly atmosphere. A good choice for a slightly more special Work Package dinner without going into fine-dining prices.

Booking: Online via the restaurant website or by phone. Book online

Recommended bars near TBS Education:

- Madame Baudruche - 13 Bd Lascrosses

Literally just a few minutes from TBS. A lively, friendly bar with cocktails and a relaxed atmosphere. Probably the most convenient option for a quick after-work drink.

- Bota Pub - 33 Bd Maréchal Leclerc

Right in front of TBS. A large, casual pub with beers, cocktails, food and a lively atmosphere. Particularly suitable for larger international groups and after-work drinks. They accept evening group bookings from 10 people.

- V and B Toulouse Reflets Compans - 3 Esplanade Compans Caffarelli

Very close to TBS, with a huge selection of beers, wines and spirits. More of an easy-going after-work / drinks option than a cocktail bar.

Where to eat and drink ?

Recommended bars in the city center:

- Au Père Louis - 45 Rue des Tourneurs

A classic Toulouse wine bar, with a traditional atmosphere and a very central location. A nice choice if people want something typically French and relaxed.

- L'Heure du Singe - 4 Rue du Languedoc

One of the better options for proper cocktails. Creative drinks, central location and a more sophisticated atmosphere without being overly formal.

- Fat Cat - 4 Rue Charles de Rémusat

A popular cocktail bar close to Place du Capitole, with a lively but stylish atmosphere. Good for a group wanting to continue the evening after dinner.

- Le Loup Blanc -18 Rue Nicolas Bachelier

A well-rated cocktail bar with a more intimate atmosphere. Good option for people looking for quality cocktails and a quieter/smarter setting

Practical Essentials

Currency

France uses the euro (€). Credit and debit cards are widely accepted in shops, restaurants and public transport. Contactless payment is also commonly available.

Weather in November

November is generally mild but can be rainy. Average temperatures are around 8–15°C. We recommend bringing a warm jacket and an umbrella.

Shops & supermarkets

Most shops are open from Monday to Saturday, generally from around 9:00 to 19:00. Supermarkets may have longer opening hours.

Pharmacies

Pharmacies are widely available throughout Toulouse. Look for the green cross sign.

Emergency numbers

- 112 - European emergency number
- 15 - Medical emergency
- 17 - Police
- 18 - Fire brigade

Language

The official language is French. English is widely spoken in hotels, tourist attractions and many restaurants, particularly in central Toulouse.

Useful French

- Bonjour - Hello
- Merci - Thank you
- S'il vous plaît - Please
- Excusez-moi - Excuse me
- Parlez-vous anglais ? - Do you speak English?
- L'addition, s'il vous plaît. - The bill, please.

What to see

Place du Capitole

The heart of Toulouse and one of the city's most iconic landmarks. Take a moment to admire the Capitole building and its beautiful square.

Basilica of Saint-Sernin

A UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the largest Romanesque churches in Europe. It is located just a few minutes' walk from the historic centre.

Japanese Garden

A peaceful garden in the heart of Toulouse, located near Compans-Caffarelli and within walking distance of TBS Education.

The Garonne & Pont Neuf

Take a walk along the Garonne and enjoy views of the city from Pont Neuf, Toulouse's oldest bridge still in use.

Couvent des Jacobins

A remarkable Gothic building famous for its impressive columns and peaceful cloister.

Cité de l'espace

This interactive science centre explores space exploration, astronomy and the history of human spaceflight.
